

Operators Condemn Coming Coal Strike

Say Lewis Ruining Coal Market

Washington, Nov. 12.—(AP)—The coal operators said today that another strike Dec. 1 is "unthinkable." They counseled John L. Lewis that his own men are "willing and eager" to dig coal—and so are a lot of others.

Speaking up as the months-old deadlock with the United Mine Workers chief continued, John D. Battle, executive vice president of the National Coal Association, charged that Lewis is "destroying the markets for coal, thereby destroying their jobs."

Lewis has not been willing to consider operators' proposals, and he has not presented any basis on which the industry could operate, Battle contended.

Men Willing To Work
"Recent events furnish abundant evidence that the men are willing and eager to work at what they know are the highest wage rates of any workers in America," the statement said.

Quoting Lewis as saying he knows of no one who wants to be a coal miner except those now mining coal, Battle said this shows ignorance of conditions in the coal fields and added:

"The truth is that there are a large number of men today on the waiting lists at the coal mines seeking employment."

"It is unthinkable," Battle said, "that John Lewis will attempt to impose upon the American people another coal strike Dec. 1 as he has threatened to do." Lewis called a three-week breather in the walk-out last Wednesday.

No Hint Of Peace
The overnight puncture of the big steel strike gave no hint of bringing peace in the coal tieup.

Neither government nor industry officials believed it would have much effect on the deadlock.

Operators and federal labor advisers asserted they are not expecting U. S. Steel Corporation or other steel interests to take the lead in trying for a contract with Lewis. The steel companies have large mine holdings for their own use closed by the coal strike.

The coal operators say Lewis has tried to convince them that he's not concerned with what happens in CIO President Philip Murray's steel strike.

However, as the steel mills get back into operation again pressures are bound to build up for coal.

AFL Truck Drivers In Aurora, Elgin Go Back To Work

Aurora, Ill., Nov. 12.—(AP)—AFL truck drivers in Aurora and Elgin agreed today to accept a 10 cents hourly pay boost and end their three-week strike.

Dockmen and helpers will get a five cent raise under the agreement. Some 350 employees of 19 trucking concerns were involved in the dispute.

The increases will bring the wages of experienced drivers to $1.48 an hour. Dockmen and helpers will get $1.38. The men are guaranteed a minimum of 45 hours work week with time and a half pay after 40 hours.

At the beginning of the dispute the AFL Teamsters union had asked a 12 cents hourly hike for drivers and seven cents for dockmen and helpers. The truck owners offered the drivers a seven cent increase and the other workers a two cent raise.

Russ Ambassador Stalks Out Of UN

Lake Success, Nov. 12.—(AP)—Soviet Ambassador Alexander Panyushkin stalked out of a United Nations meeting today rather than reply to Yugoslav charges that Russian troops are concentrated on Yugoslavia's borders.

"I consider it beneath my dignity to answer the slanders of the representative of the Tito clique," said Panyushkin in the U.N. assembly's social committee.

He brushed aside Yugoslav delegate Vladimir Dedijer's accusation yesterday that Russia had concentrated troops on the border, refused to let Yugoslav children in Russian schools go home, and refused to take home Russian citizens living in Yugoslavia. He then left the meeting of the 59-nation social committee.

"That is the answer of an ostrich," said Dedijer looking pointedly at Panyushkin's empty chair.

Steel Industry Gears For Top Production

Pittsburgh, Nov. 12.—(AP)—Back to work parades of cheering thousands today put America's economic life-line—steel—back in business after a 42-day strike costing nearly a billion dollars.

Smoke belled from mill stacks across the country. Workers celebrated and then geared the giant industry for top production early in the week ahead.

Thomas Says One European Country Snubbed US Group

Vienna, Austria, Nov. 12.—(AP)—Senator Elmer Thomas (D-Okla.) said today one European country has damaged its prospects of getting more Marshall plan aid by snubbing the Senate appropriations subcommittee.

The senator, who is chairman of the subcommittee, did not name the country, but members of his party said he meant Sweden.

Told that reporters drew the inference he was referring to Sweden, Thomas said:

"If that is the conclusion they drew, it is perfectly all right with me. I will not, however, go any further than my original statement. Everyone in my party knows to which country I am referring."

In his original statement, Thomas said when the subcommittee "visited" one country the government officials acted as if they did not know they were within a thousand miles of the place. xxx any more money granted to that country will be over my protest."

"The country I refer to has helped no one in the last 135 years. xxx anyone with a military uniform on in that country is a spy xxx They saw some easy money and they grabbed it—now they want more."

Cairo Police Hold 2 Men For Passing Counterfeit Bills

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Raymond Hicks, 27, and James Shekell, 26, both of Paducah, Ky., waived preliminary hearing today and were held to the grand jury on charges of passing and possessing counterfeit bills.

Bond was set at $5,000 each but both men failed to raise the amount and remained in jail.

The pair was arrested Thursday night with $900 in fake $10 bills in the hub caps of their automobile. Chief of Police Earl Shepherd, Jr., said 10 counterfeit bills were passed in five Cairo establishments Thursday night.

Report 11 Killed As Colombia City Bombed By Rebels

Bogota, Colombia, Nov. 12.—(AP)—The new conservative mayor of Yacopi and 11 other persons were reported killed today in a dynamiting of the town hall.

If the story, carried by the liberal newspaper El Tiempo, is true it would mark the first resurgence of pre-election violence since a state of siege was imposed Wednesday to halt bloodshed between the contending liberal and conservative parties.

Colombia now is ruled by a conservative president and a liberal parliament. The president imposed the state of siege and suspended parliament.

Says Polish Shipping Line Broadcasts Propaganda

Washington, Nov. 12.—(AP)—A former official of a Polish shipping line has charged—and two top officers of the company have denied—that the line broadcast propaganda here and helped finance a Communist newspaper in the United States.

The testimony, involving the Gdynia-America Line, was taken earlier this fall and released tonight by a Senate Judiciary subcommittee studying proposals for new laws to block the entry of subversive aliens and to toss out any already here.

One of Gdynia-America's ships is the Batory, aboard which Gerhart Eisler, high ranking Communist, stayed away from the United States to beat deportation proceedings.

Anthony Trzeciaki, the witness who leveled the propaganda charge, told about that, too.

He said that the company's president went to the Polish consul,

Fraternity House Murder Mars OSU Homecoming

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 12.—(AP)—The managing editor of Ohio State University's student daily was shot and killed early today by a fraternity brother.

The shooting followed a cocktail party and dance of Delta Tau Delta fraternity, celebrating homecoming, members said.

University regulations forbid intoxicating liquor in fraternity houses.

Dr. Howard L. Bevis, university president, described the slaying as "a tragically regrettable incident." A "full investigation" was ordered.

Jack T. McKeown, a 21-year-old senior, was shot once with a .45 caliber automatic pistol on the Delta Tau Delta house lawn at 2:30 a.m. McKeown, who died a few minutes later in university hospital, was trying to take the pistol from James D. Heer, 20, a freshman veterinary student and an ex-marine.

Heer dashed away in a taxicab, then surrendered to police peacefully, five miles from the fraternity house. He admitted the shooting, said Detective Kenneth Anderson, and remarked:

"When I get drunk, I get trigger-happy."

McKeown lived in Norwood, a suburb of Cincinnati. Heer lives in Euclid, a Cleveland suburb.

The death of the Ohio State lantern editor cast a pall over the annual homecoming festivities on the campus, where an estimated 82,000 persons gathered today to watch the school's football team play Illinois.

While three detectives went through the Delta Tau Delta house, questioning members, the fraternity cancelled the remainder of its homecoming program, including an open house for parents.

"We are pretty well broken up over this," a spokesman said. Heer, still attired in the tuxedo which he wore to the fraternity dance, was confined at police headquarters. Even his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Heer, were not permitted to see him immediately.

Illinois News Briefs

Paris, Ill., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Don E. Fairchild, 23, a Paris telephone lineman, died last night of head injuries suffered in a 25-foot fall from a pole.

The accident occurred Oct. 28 when a passing truck caught a sagging telephone wire and dragged the pole on which Fairchild was working to the ground.

Lostant, Ill., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Robert Weber, 17, went out today to hunt with his brand new shotgun. Ten minutes after he left the home of his parents he was found wounded in a field, shot in the side. Sheriff's officers said apparently young Weber tripped and discharged his gun accidentally.

Moline, Ill., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Local American Federation of Labor officials began a drive today to collect assessments of two dollars apiece from the 30,000 craft union members in this area.

The money is to be used by the AFL labor league for political education.

Cliff Carney of Moline, president of the Tri-City Federation of Labor said the money collected will be allocated on a national basis for campaign use on national, state, county and city elections in 1950.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—(AP)—Non-veterans now may qualify for second lieutenants' commissions in the Illinois National Guard.

Maj. Gen. Joseph A. Teece, commanding general, announced this today in connection with the autumn recruiting drive which he said thus far has secured more than 2,500 enlistments in 90 communities of the state.

Kankakee, Ill., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Clinton Craig, state commander of the Amvets, announced today that Harold Russell, national day commander, will tour Illinois posts this month.

Russell's schedule includes these stops: Rockford, Nov. 18; Granite City, Nov. 19; Dixon and Moline, Nov. 20 and Jacksonville, Nov. 21.

Hamburg, Germany, Nov. 12.—(AP)—The owners of Germany's largest shipyard, which turned out Nazi submarines and flying boats during the war, were found guilty today of trying to dodge allied dismantling orders.

A British court ordered Rudolf Bloehm, senior partner of Bloehm and Voss, to pay a fine of 5,000 marks ($1,250) or serve five years in prison. His brother, Walther, was fined 1,000 marks ($250) with an alternate prison sentence of 10 months.

Four other defendants were sentenced to prison.

The prosecution offered evidence that machines were removed from the shipyard to cheat the dismantlers and were listed in false invoices as having been legally bought for the Soviet zone.

Says Need Of Low Income Groups Is Economic Frontier

Washington, Nov. 12.—(AP)—The need of the nation's low income groups constitute "a great underdeveloped economic frontier" for American industry, a congressional committee was told tonight.

These groups—nearly 16,000,000 families and individuals receiving less than $2,000 annually in money income—"have been left behind in the economic progress of America," said a report to the Senate-House economic committee.

The report was prepared by the staff of a subcommittee in preparation for public hearings next month on the general subject of low income families and their relation to economic stability.

In an economic system geared to mass production, the report says, there must be mass consumption if severe economic dislocations are to be avoided.

EARLY CHRISTMAS
Toronto, Ont., Nov. 12.—(AP)—George Adams congratulated himself yesterday—his Christmas shopping was finished, neatly wrapped and tied with ribbons. Today he has to start all over again. A burglar entered his west-end home last night and took the lot and $55 in cash.

Liver oils from the fresh-water fish catch the burbot yield seven to eight times more in vitamins than cod-liver oil.

Says Russia Offered To Raise Iron Curtain

Yugos Junk Friendship Treaty With Albania

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Nov. 12.—(AP)—Yugoslavia today junked her treaty of friendship and alliance with Albania, ten days after delivering a virtual ultimatum to her little southern neighbor.

Marshall Tito's government charged that Albania, goaded by Soviet Russia and her eastern European dependencies, committed unfriendly acts.

In a note handed the Albanians Nov. 2, Yugoslavia sharply told her to stop these hostile gestures and to live up to her terms of their 1947 friendship treaty. A reply was demanded "within the shortest possible time."

Albania ignored the demand. It was the first time that Yugoslavia, badgered for months by Russia and her Balkan followers, has taken the initiative in scrapping one of the alliances which formerly bound them together.

Earlier, following campaigns of mutual abuse and accusation, Russia, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Romania, Hungary and Bulgaria severed treaties with Belgrade. Diplomatic relations, however, continue.

In making the break, Yugoslavia said the sympathies of the government and the Yugoslavians were "unswervingly" with the Albanian people.

U.S. Fails To Get Response From Red China On Arrests

Washington, Nov. 12.—(AP)—The state department today disclosed new failures in the efforts to get information from Chinese Communists about American Consul General Angus Ward in jail at Mukden.

A message received from Vice Consul William N. Stokes at Mukden said he had been able to send new packages of food and clothing to Ward and the four consulate employees held with him. However, he had not been able to obtain information on the health, treatment, date of trial or date of release of the jailed men. He has been pressing local authorities for the facts.

Requests for information have likewise been made to Communist China's national leaders at Peking by Consul General O. Edmund Clubb. He also has been rebuffed.

Ward, two American citizens on his staff and two European citizens he employed were arrested October 24 on charges of having beaten a Chinese employee of the consulate two weeks earlier. Ward's early telegrams on the alleged incident and Stokes' reports on it filed after the arrest apparently have been suppressed by the Chinese Communists.

Army To Study War Tactics Of Russo-Finnish War

Anchorage, Alaska, Nov. 12.—(AP)—The army is going to study sub-arctic war tactics of the Russo-Finnish war at its frigid big delta training center this winter—but it won't say where or how it got the information.

Announcement that the troops would give extended study to the 1939-40 clash was made today by Maj. Gen. Stanley L. Scott, army commanding general of Alaska.

Describing information concerning Russian-Finnish tactics as "valuable," the announcement did not elaborate on what it includes or how it was obtained.

Man Is Murdered By His Neighbor

Kankakee, Ill., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Sam Calvert, 28, was shot and killed today at the back door of a neighbor, Moses Hardison, 50.

Police Chief Daniel Bergan said Hardison, a Negro, admitted blasting Calvert, also a Negro, with a shotgun. Hardison, Bergan said, related that although they live only a few doors apart he had never seen Calvert before.

Hardison said he got his shotgun after Calvert came to his door and "began to bulldoze me." The police chief, who said there were a number of witnesses to the killing, charged Hardison with murder.

The couple will postpone their honeymoon until Christmas, when they will visit Mrs. Becker's parents in Castine.

'Black Market' In TV Sets Rears Its Head In Chicago

Chicago, Nov. 12.—(AP)—A fledgling "black market" in television sets and dealers on an allocation basis: already are sold out until the end of the year, and are now building up a 1950 order backlog. Several said they have from five to seven times as many orders as production capacity between now and the end of the year.

One noted that "small radios and phonographs are even scarier than TV sets. It's almost tougher today than after the war in some respects," he added.

Shortage of parts, cathode tubes, and seasoned cabinet lumber have combined with a sharp jump in public demand to create the present situation, yet set production never was higher.

Television Fund, Inc., an investment house operating only in TV shares, reported the industry last month brought an estimated 400,000 (TV) sets off the assembly lines. This month, it was added, is expected to show at least as large a record to

For their part, most manufacturers say they have placed distributors and dealers on an allocation basis: already are sold out until the end of the year, and are now building up a 1950 order backlog. Vishinsky Blasts U.S. Charges

Lake Success, Nov. 12.—(AP)—Andrei Y. Vishinsky said today the Soviet Union has offered to open wide its doors to international atomic control and inspection.

The Soviet foreign minister firmly told the special political committee of the U.N. assembly, however, that Russia never would give up one bit of its soil to ownership by any international commission.

He said also, in a wrap-up speech on the atomic question for the Soviet Union, that Russian requirements for atomic energy are "tremendous, and they are growing."

Atomic Energy For Peace
"We endeavor," he continued, "to meet these requirements as they come up, and in endeavoring to meet these requirements, we use our atomic energy for peaceful purposes."

He said that large scale explosive work is taking place in the Soviet Union.

Assistant Secretary of State John D. Hickerson told the committee yesterday that the United States is sending isotopes, radio-active tracer elements for research, to some 30 countries. He asked what are the Russians doing.

Vishinsky said that was all right "but the fact is that we are using atomic energy for large scale explosive projects, blowing up things."

Blowing Up What?
"Blowing up what?" he asked. "Pieces of rock. After all, we are not going to just shake the air. That would be economically unprofitable. Although there have been cases in history where atomic bombs shook the air rather than do good to mankind, and in addition to shaking the air they killed scores of thousands of persons without any need, militarily speaking, from the view of prosecuting the war or from the point of view of anybody's war aims."

The verbatim record of the Vishinsky speech Thursday records him as saying: "we are razing mountains, we are irrigating deserts, we are cutting through the jungle and the tundra; we are spreading life, happiness, prosperity and welfare in places where the human footstep has not been seen for thousands of years."

Vishinsky said statements had been ascribed to him about moving mountains with the help of atomic energy. He said someone perhaps thought of a report in a German paper but that he had talked of blowing up mountains, razing them. After the committee adjourned, Hickerson told correspondents that he stood on his statement yesterday to the committee. He said Vishinsky's "wild language" did not answer one argument.

J. Dorsey Charged With Assault By Virginia Milkman

Roanoke, Va., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Roused from his sleep at a local hotel Bandleader Jimmy Dorsey today posted $100 bond for his appearance in Richmond, Va., Monday morning to answer a warrant charging him with assault.

"I don't often lose my temper, but I finally got tired of it," Dorsey said in reference to an incident alleged to have occurred at Richmond's Tantiella Garden while the bandleader was playing for a dance there earlier this week.

A Richmond milkman, William G. Toney, Jr., swore out a warrant for Dorsey's arrest after the bandleader, he said, slugged him with a clarinet in response to a question concerning Bandleader Tommy Dorsey, Jimmy's brother.

Truck Driver Who Went To Court For Fiancee Weds Her

Chicago, Nov. 12.—(AP)—A truck driver who went to court to get his fiancée out of a Chicago mental hospital on an order obtained by her bridegroom, Carl Becker, 32.

On their previous wedding date, Aug. 2, Mrs. Becker was committed to the hospital as an amnesia victim. She had collapsed on a Chicago street, and a medical commission reported she was "confused, disoriented and had no insight."

Becker, however, had a private psychiatrist examine her and the doctor pronounced her normal. Then Becker filed a habeas corpus petition in circuit court, and Judge Harry M. Fisher ordered the girl released.

Today Miss Hutchins, dressed in aquamarine taffeta, and Becker exchanged vows before Judge Arthur G. Larson in marriage court.

The couple will postpone their honeymoon until Christmas, when they will visit Mrs. Becker's parents in Castine.

Members Of Noted British Ballet Arrive In Chicago

Chicago, Nov. 12.—(AP)—Some 60 members of the noted British Sadler's Wells ballet arrived in Chicago today and was greeted by the skirl of bagpipes played by a kilt-clad Scottish band.

The company, from the Royal Opera house in Covent Garden, London, is touring the United States sponsored by the arts council of Great Britain and the British council.

The ballet will open its first Chicago appearance Sunday night in a three act performance of Teikowsky's "Sleeping Beauty."

On their arrival in Chicago by train the dancers were met by acting British Consul General Denis Wright and 17 killed bagpipers and dancers of the Illinois State Andrews society. The band then escorted them to their hotel.

LEHMAN'S VICTORY SHOWS THAT GOP MUST FIGHT HARD FOR '50

The victory of Herbert H. Lehman, Democrat, over Sen. John Foster Dulles, Republican, in the New York Senate race is of more than merely state concern. Leaders in both parties labeled it a test of President Truman's "Fair Deal" policies.

Unlike many election contests, the issue in this one was clearly drawn. Lehman was for the fair deal. Though he did not use the term "welfare state," he made plain he believes in it.

Dulles, on the other hand, pitched his whole campaign on his opposition to the "Fair Deal," the welfare state and what he calls "statism"—too much government.

Dulles also made much of what he contended was the threat of communism in the Lehman candidacy. He said Lehman had Communist support and that the Democratic program is moving toward the sort of state control the Communists espouse. But hammering this tack was really a part of his basic assault on the general "Fair Deal" philosophy.

The only side issue dragged into the campaign was that of alleged racial or religious bigotry on the part of Dulles.

The Republican nominee made a statement in upstate New York which Lehman declared stamped him as a bigot. Dulles hotly defended himself against the charge and offered testimonials from men of differing faiths in support of his stand. Certainly this development may have affected the way a considerable number of New Yorkers voted.

But everything suggests that essentially the voters made their choice on the basis of the main issue—the Truman "Fair Deal." Dulles himself, in his statement conceding Lehman's victory, granted that the outcome was decided on that question. He told his followers that "This is the first round, but it's certainly not the last round" in the fight for the principles he favors.

The Democratic Party unquestionably will seek to make full capital of this triumph. It has already been hailed not merely as an endorsement of the President's policies but as a harbinger of things to come in the 1950 congressional elections.

Whether it actually tells us much about what will happen next fall no political experts can really say. A year is a long time, and political tides change suddenly with events. Furthermore, the business of political forecasting is still somewhat discredited after the pollsters' 1948 fiasco.

Lehman's victory would seem to be notice to the Republicans that the popular sentiment which catapulted Mr. Truman surprisingly into a second term is running stronger than ever in the nation's most populous state. It suggests that nothing the GOP has done up to this moment has been sufficient to reverse that trend.

The New York result thus defines more sharply the Republican task in 1950. No one doubts that the "Fair Deal" will again be the issue from the Democratic viewpoint. The nation will watch with interest to see what program GOP leaders devise for the coming re-match on this question.

ROUTT CROWNS QUEEN AT VICTORY BALL

Miss Ladean Sargent, was crowned queen of the Routt Victory Ball held Friday night at the K. C. hall. A. J. Spreen, captain of the champion 2-C football squad, was her escort.

Miss Dot Saner and Miss Aggie Jackson were her attendants. Their escorts were Tony Cobb and Sonny Loneragan.

The queen was crowned by Mrs. Paul Stroud, wife of the Routt coach. Her escort was Dick Cassler. Joan Stroud, four, was the crown bearer.

A large crowd danced to the music of Jimmy Conlee's orchestra.

Miss Sargent wore a gown of white organza over green, and Miss Jackson's was turquoise blue taffeta. Miss Saner's was turquoise green taffeta. The attendants both carried colonial bouquets of red roses and yellow chrysanthemums, one with pink and one with lavender satin streamers. The crown was of white baby mums.

Brenda Standley and Connie Foreman were co-chairmen of the dance. All in the ceremony were seniors and the boys were members of the winning 1949 football team.

"Club 13" Will Be Featured at College Tonight

The MacMurray College Physical Education Department presents its annual "Club 13" tonight from 9:30 to 12 o'clock when McClelland Hall is transformed into a campus night club. The entertainment will follow the pattern of former years, with floor shows, dancing, dance contests, cards, and refreshments.

Campus talent will be on display in the two floor shows. The first show, at 9 p. m., will feature a dance duo, two vocal solos, a saxophone solo, a "Hula," and in conclusion, the Melody Macs will sing "Symphony."

At 9:30 there will be a dance contest, for both jitterbug and slow dancing, which will be judged by three MacMurray faculty members—Dr. Ray Holcombe, Dr. R. A. Bullington, and Miss Harriet Bertoglio.

The second floor show, at 10:30, will include more vocal solos and ensembles, two dances, one of them a soft-shoe dance, and a reading. The College Choir will conclude the program at 11:35.

The College swing band will play for dancing and there will be card playing at tables surrounding the dance floor. Refreshments may be purchased throughout the evening—freshmen Physical Education majors will be serving as waitresses.

Miss Sue Kaldahl of Detroit Lakes, Minn., chairman of Club 13, reports that decorations will be highlighted by silhouettes of dancing couples in silver and black. This motif will also be carried out in the orchestra backdrop. Members of the College administration will be guests at the club.

Mrs. Applebee To Address Club Members Thursday

Mrs. A. B. Applebee, an active member of the Business and Professional Women's club, will address members of the club at their regular meeting Thursday at 6:15 p. m. in the Durlap hotel.

Mrs. Applebee and her husband, Alpha B. Applebee, recently returned from Europe, where they spent several weeks getting acquainted strong and vigorous because the with the people in a number of countries and their living conditions. Her subject will be "International Friendship."

The meeting has been arranged by the program coordination committee, of which Blanche Spall is chairman. Other members of the committee are Amelia DeMotte and Sarah Jane Brown.

The supper committee will consist of Agnes Paxton and Frances Webb. Imogene Stotler will serve as cashier.

Former Member Of I. C. Faculty Dies in St. Louis

St. Louis, Nov. 12.—P.—Dr. George Reeves Throop, chancellor of Washington university for 16 years until his retirement in 1944, died in St. Luke's hospital last night at the age of 67.

He became an instructor in Latin and Greek at the university in 1907 and before that was on the faculty of Illinois college at Jacksonville. While at Illinois college, Dr. Throop was assistant professor of Greek from 1905 to 1906 and professor of Greek from 1906 to 1907. He returned to Jacksonville in 1939, as principal speaker at I. CITY Supt. Discusses THE NEXT DECADE IN EDUCATION

(Seventh and final of a series of articles dealing with American Education Week.)

By DR. DARRELL BLODGETT

Superintendent of Jacksonville Public Schools.

"You can't do today's job with world situation. Tomorrow's tools and be in business. To provide better education, better teaching methods and materials taken from the advertisement of a must continuously be used. The problems of every living will be faced more realistically to help pupils appreciate the value of their studies. Better teaching materials in the form of improved library materials, curriculum and teaching materials. If education is to serve the needs of our times it must help youth progress at a rate that is comparable with the swift moving social scene. Enormous potential power has been tapped by scientists in recent years. These scientific discoveries must be matched by social understanding and vision if the expanded power is to be put to work for the benefit of mankind.

DR. DARRELL BLODGETT

Modern education recognizes the fact that change is inevitable and that students must have more help in meeting new opportunities and new responsibilities. Change has brought higher standards of living. It has also brought new threats to our security. All change does not represent progress but our country is strong and vigorous because the people have been willing to work, to create and to meet new challenges.

Challenge of Next 10 Years The challenge of education in the next decade is to make it a stronger force in improving the quality of living. Throughout the history of Jacksonville, education has been inseparably identified with the progress of the community—progress in terms of advance prosperity and cultural advancement.

In the decade ahead education should continue to provide for the fullest development of each boy and girl and prepare them for the duties and privileges of citizenship. The advancing front should include intellectual development, social competence, vocational efficiency, physical and emotional well being, worthy attitudes and interests, and spiritual values.

Schools are alert to the needs for strengthening American democracy. They know that to be living and vital, democracy must be a positive, practical force in the life of every student and adult. In helping students learn the principals of democracy and develop democratic attitudes, habit, and practices the schools will become small communities of social growth and development. These school communities will lead students to an understanding of the larger communities of city, state and nation as well as the complex

Mothers Attend Get-Acquainted Hour At School

The mothers of the sixth and seventh grade pupils of Community Consolidated School District No. 2, met Wednesday afternoon in the school dining room for an hour of getting acquainted and discussing school work with the teachers. Mrs. Alvin Middendorf is chairman of the P.T.A.

Delightful refreshments were served by the home room mothers. Mrs. Robert Wallace and Mrs. Robert DuBois, assisted by Mrs. Perkins. Each mother was introduced by Clifford Thaxton of the faculty. Problems concerning the children's work were discussed and all questions pertaining to their studies were cheerfully and fully answered by the teachers.

Clifford Thaxton is sixth grade teacher and John Maynard is seventh grade teacher at the school.

Elected constable were Edward Goodey, Republican, 1740; J. W. Hankins, Republican, 1642; Harold R. Wilson, Republican, 1625; Frank Ham, Democrat, 1554; Richard Vasey, Democrat, 1740.

W. T. Kirby Has Served 65 Years In Drug Stores

Jerseyville — "Business as usual" was transacted Friday by T. W. Kirby, Sr., veteran druggist, who marked his eighty-second birthday anniversary that day. He reported at the usual hour at the T. W. Kirby Drug store operated by himself and his son, and stayed "on deck" until the store closed at noon for the Armistice Day holiday. A family dinner at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, honored the occasion.

Kirby has been associated with the drug business in Jerseyville for over 65 years and is the last of the older generation of business men on active duty in their business. He seldom misses a day at work, despite his age—in fact, he hasn't missed many days since he first went to work in the Remer Drug store in 1884. He became a partner in the business in 1902 and in 1909 became the sole owner. His son, Thomas W. Kirby, Jr., following his graduation from the St. Louis School of Pharmacy in 1926, became associated with his father and the firm of T. W. Kirby & Son has continued since that time.

ISD Students to Have Story Hour Tuesday Afternoon

Highlighting the observance of National Book Week at the Illinois School for the Deaf will be the story hour on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 15, at 3 o'clock in Bowen Auditorium by Marian Chate Schaeffer.

As an interpreter of prose and poetry, Mrs. Schaeffer has delighted audiences both here and over the state in the years she has lived in Jacksonville. Her program will consist of "The Shut-out Post" by Annie Trumbull Slossen and "Little Red Riding Hood" by James Whitcomb Riley. Miss Elizabeth Tate will interpret the program.

The 1949 Bookmark will be issued during the week. The picture used for it, "A Child Reading," was made by the photograph department and printed by the printing department. The senior class will have a preview of the new books which will be on display in the library.

TIMES THEATRE

In a good suit, shoulder padding is usually made of fine lightweight cotton that feels soft and flexible. To test interlining, bend back corner of collar. In a well-made suit it will flip back into place. Material usually considered best for trousers' pockets and facings is firm cotton twill—soft and leathery in feeling. To get rid of the fish odor in a frying pan, sprinkle salt in the pan, add hot water and let pan soak awhile before washing.

About Face!

Care Erases Blackheads

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

The discovery that blackheads are polka-dotting her nose, chin or forehead is enough to give any teen-ager worry.

Although working the tiny blackheads out with fingernails is the worst possible approach to this problem, it's the one to which girls often resort. Mauling the skin until "wounds" uglier than the blackheads appear is what results from this "treatment."

Blackheads should go, however. They can be worked out by rubbing granular soap over the affected area until pores are freed of their burden. Another suggested step is to apply a steaming towel to the blackhead-blemishing skin after washing the face with soap and water.

Usually stubborn blackheads will yield to this two-step treatment. If a toothpick, wrapped in alcohol-dipped cotton is rubbed gently over the spots, many unclogged pores will stay that way.

For more persistent blemishes there are blackhead extractors on the market that are helpful to use. These must be sterilized in boiling water and alcohol before they are used on each separate blemish.

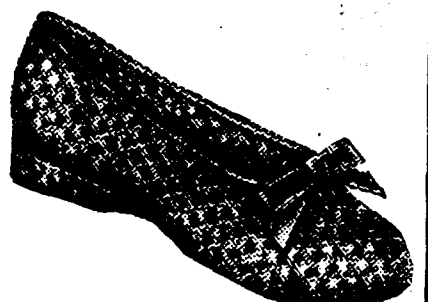

Medicated pores pastes or creams used nightly after a thorough washing and steaming will aid in keeping evacuated pores healthy and clean.

A girl can continue to keep her face unblemished if regular soap-and-water clean-ups are always followed by an application of astringent lotion which helps to keep them resistant to soil.

A diet that's not too rich in fats and oils will also do its part in keeping a girl's complexion free of blemishes.

When stacking fine china plates, protect them by placing in between a soft paper towel as a padding. Throw towels away when they become dusty and replace with clean ones.

Paint Performs!

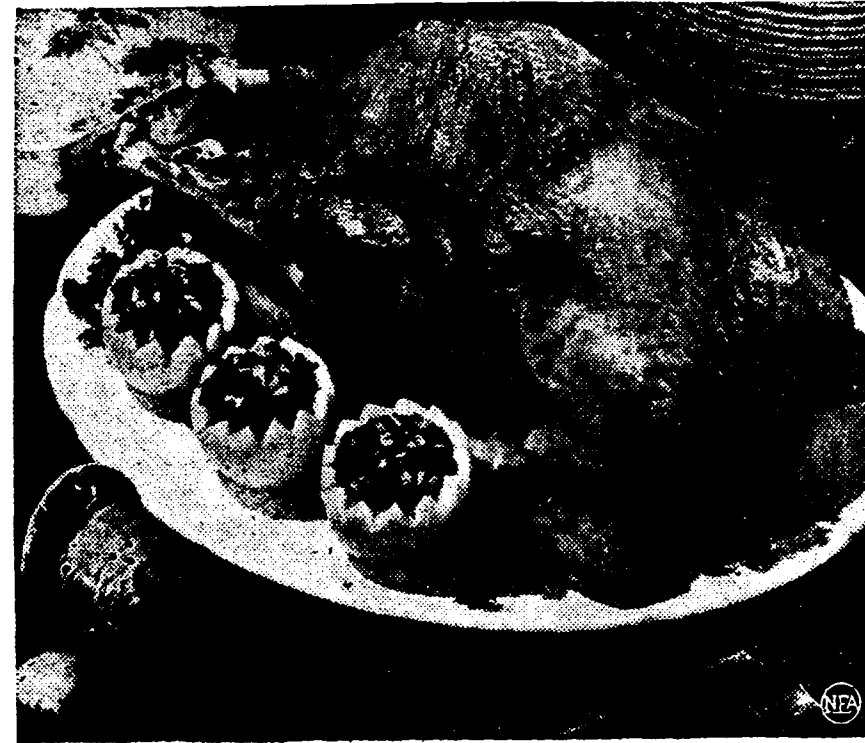

NEW paints can do almost everything!

With but a stroke of her brush any housewife can paint frosting on glass, chrome finishes on fixtures, de-skid a walk and fake a hand-rubbed gloss on furniture. This housewife (upper left) brushes new frosting paint on her clear glass bath windows to make their transparency opaque for privacy. A cheese cloth pad will mottle the surface so that when the simple paint-job is dry it will pass for expensive frosted glass. Chrome-effect paint is applied to old bathroom fixtures (lower left) to make these accessories look spanking new. Shiny new "chrome" will dry waterproof and washable.

More strokes of the paintbrush dipped into another type of paint eliminate the hazard of slippery steps around the kitchen (right). Housewife uses a bright floor enamel containing new non-skid compound which she can also use on her cellar floors. Her table (center left) bought unfinished, takes on a hand-rubbed lacquer finish with two coats of a new paint application that produces a satin lustre without sandpaper or waxing.

Roast Old-Fashioned Turkey

GOOD OLD DAYS—Add zest to old-fashioned roast turkey by garnishing with raw cranberry relish.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

First you select the best turkey you can find. Then you look for the best way to roast it. That's the American Thanksgiving formula.

Freda De Knight, in this writer's judgment, is one of the best cooks the land over. And her recipe for old-fashioned roast turkey is one of the most satisfactory. Here it is, taken from her "A Date With a Dish."

Old-Fashioned Roast Turkey
(Allow 1 to 1 1/2 pound per person)
Twelve to 15-pound, turkey, 1 tablespoon salt, 1 tablespoon paprika, 2 tablespoons bacon fat, 1 teaspoon garlic salt, 1 teaspoon pepper. Singe turkey while dry and remove all pin feathers. Clean inside and out. Wash and dry. Sprinkle inside and out with salt and pepper. Fill with your favorite stuffing. Sew up or close with skewers; neck cavity may be filled with stuffing, if desired. Fold wing tip up under back. (Never stuff turkey tightly, allow for expansion.) Rub turkey well with bacon fat, salt, pepper, paprika, and garlic salt. Cover with a clean white cloth which has been dipped in melted fat or milk. Cover well. Roast slowly uncovered, making sure cloth stays damp at oven temperature, 300 degrees F. Allow 20 minutes per pound. Baste from time to time with drippings, turning turkey completely to brown on all sides. Cloth may be removed during last half hour, so the turkey skin will be brown and crisp. Boil giblets and neck with celery tops, onions, and seasonings to make gravy.

To remove dust and brighten old felt, first brush with stiff bristled brush or very fine sandpaper, then clean with fluid. Steaming makes felt easy to mold to the size and shape desired.

FOR SHINING BEAUTY Nail Polish Coats Metal

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

To prevent the gold-colored pulls or other metal ornamentation on your new handbag from tarnishing, paint the metal lightly with clear nail polish.

Clear polish, carefully applied with quick, even strokes, is equally good for keeping bright and shiny any inexpensive gold-colored metal. Costume jewelry, for example, tarnishes easily without a protective coating. The polish acts in exactly the same manner as lacquer does when applied to your silver bonbon dish.

You won't want to use nail polish as a covering on a very large surface nor will you use it on your good silver or gold pieces. But for small, inexpensive pieces—buttons, lipstick cases, cuff links—the clear lacquer is ideal for keeping metallic splendor undimmed.

Mothballs tucked into the pockets of fur jackets, or in the folds of fur accessories, will be a protective measure to keep the moths away if fine furs aren't worn every day.

To store cheese so it doesn't dry up in the refrigerator, wrap several times in a paper towel dampened with salt water, then wrap again in waxed paper.

Barry Woman Is Vice Commander Of Army Mothers

Kansas City, Nov. 12.—(AP)—The United States army mothers are in favor of requiring all persons in public office to take a loyalty oath.

At their ninth annual convention the army mothers today adopted a resolution advocating the oath. They also urged a more effective screening policy in admitting aliens to this country.

Mrs. Jessamine Doran, Lincoln, Neb., was elected national commander.

Other officers elected:

Mrs. Stella Staggs of Barry, Ill., and Mrs. Nellie Hemp of Huntington, W. Va., vice-commanders; Mrs. Cora Frandsen, Fort Dodge, Ia., chaplain; Mrs. Alta Dial Ottumwa, Ia., historian; Mrs. Laura Eshelman, North Platte, Neb., and Mrs. Claudis Reisen, Parshall, N. D., flag-bearers.

Works of Deceased Artist to Be on Exhibition Here
An exhibition of more than 60 works by the late Laszlo Moholy-Nagy will be shown at the Strawn Art Gallery from Nov. 13 to Nov. 27. It will be open to the public from 8-5 and 7-9 p.m. on week days, and on Sundays from 2-5 p.m.
This exhibition was assembled by Mrs. Styll Moholy-Nagy for nationwide circulation under the auspices of the American Federation of Arts, Washington, D. C. At least 15 museums and galleries are included in the circuit.
The Moholy-Nagy memorial exhibit reflects the explorations of a creative artist beginning with the first of his representational drawings and culminating in his "space modulators" and sculptures in Plexiglass. In the latter, Moholy created an actual third dimension in painting without resorting to the conventional use of perspective.
Besides drawings and abstract paintings and constructions, the exhibition includes examples of photographs and lithographs, collages, linoleum cuts and lithographs.
Laszlo Moholy-Nagy was born in Hungary in 1895. He received his bachelor's degree in law but never practiced. During World War I he served in the Hungarian army and, while recovering from a severe wound, began to draw. From 1922-1928, Moholy held a professorship at the Bauhaus in Dessau. He became head of the metal workshop and did much experimental work in photography. At the same time, he collaborated with Walter Gropius, director, in designing the 14 books published by the Bauhaus.
In 1928, Moholy resigned from the Bauhaus. He designed stage settings for the Berlin State Opera, made documentary films, and traveled extensively in Europe.

Social Events
Dr. Applebee Speaker At Lions Meeting
The regular monthly meeting of the Lions club was held Thursday at 6:15 p.m. in the banquet room of the Dunlap hotel, with 36 members in attendance. Mrs. Harold Henderson, president, presided.
Lioness Cody had charge of the program for the evening and introduced Dr. A. B. Applebee who gave an interesting account of his recent trip abroad on the "Farmers' Friendship Tour." The club voted to donate $30 to the Community Chest.
The free meal was won by Lioness Herr and the table decorations were awarded to Lionesses Livengood, Noudett, Crouse and Floreth.

Librarian Speaks to Grace Church Society
Miss Frances Bailey, librarian of the Jacksonville Public Library, was guest speaker at a meeting of Circle 6 of Grace Methodist church W.S.C.S. at the home of Mrs. Jack Thomas, 527 Rosedale. Miss Bailey discussed adult and children's literature, stressing the changes that have taken place particularly in children's books.
Mrs. Glenn Kendall, president, conducted a business session at which plans were made for a bazaar and supper and a plastic party. Mrs. Frank Marston gave the devotion, using the Thanksgiving theme.
Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Deane Cannell. Twenty-five members were in attendance. The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Willard Cody.

VFW Auxiliary Plans Counties Council Meeting
The V.F.W. Auxiliary made final plans for the Central Counties' meeting, to be held here Sunday, at its regular meeting at the V.F.W. home on Route 26.
Mrs. Mary Frances Cruzan, secretary, read a letter pertaining to the meeting, which will be attended by state and district officials. The officers will go to the State hospital at 11 a.m. to visit with the veterans and distribute gifts to them. All members are urged to attend the meeting.
Mrs. Violet Grogan, president, had charge of the business session, during which five new members, Mrs. Laura Pritchett, Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. Roberta Haynes, Mrs. Bernice Jackson and Mrs. Annetta McClain, were accepted.
A letter of appreciation, thanking the auxiliary for the flag which it presented to Cub Pack 101 of Lafayette school, was read from D. M. McDermott, Scout executive, and D. R. Blodgett, superintendent of schools.
Mrs. Mildred Smith reported on child welfare; Mrs. Agnes McDevitt on activities, and Mrs. Smith on the party at the State hospital Nov. 16.

Jerseyville Legion Building Bids To Be Opened Nov. 26

Jerseyville—Plans for the new American Legion Memorial Home in this city were adopted at a meeting of the Memorial Home committee of Worthy Post Tuesday evening at the American Legion Park here.
The committee announced Wednesday that sealed bids will be received immediately for construction of the home, and plans and specification may be obtained after Friday from either Attorney John P. Gibbons or County Judge William F. Hanley in this city.

Sealed bids will be received and will be opened Nov. 28 at 7:30 p. m. at the Legion Park by the committee. With the awarding of the contract, the work is expected to begin immediately and pushed with all possible speed to completion.

Building Committee
The members of the Memorial Home committee are Attorney John P. Gibbons, Robert Hughes, Arthur Isringhausen, Orville Breitweiser, Byron L. McDow, Judge William F. Hanley, Bert F. Feyerabend, Theodore Beiermann and Robert Reese.

The committee also announced Wednesday that a number of the older wooden buildings at the Legion Park will be dismantled and removed from the area. The buildings among which is the residence of the former caretaker of the park, and a number of structures erected by the Old Jersey County Fair Association, will be numbered, and parties interested in purchasing any of the units will submit sealed bids. The bids for the purchase of the buildings will be opened by the committee the evening of November 21.

The proposed Memorial Home will be of brick and general fireproof construction, and will be one of the largest structures in the community. The committee announced that bonds are being printed now to be issued in assisting in financing the construction of the home.

ARENZVILLE GIRL SCOUTS MEET AT HOBROCK HOME

Children's Book Week to Be Marked By Local Library

Children's Book Week, Nov. 13-19, will be observed by the Jacksonville Public Library, which has set up a display in the children's department, showing many of the new books and posters done by the children, illustrating their favorite books.

Originated in 1915, Children's Book Week has steadily gained momentum and is observed not only in this country, but throughout the world. It follows American Education Week.

The library is used by children for preparing their school lessons as well as for recreational reading. During September and October, 46 sets of books were sent to the school to supplement the pupils' text books.

Of the 250 new books added to the juvenile collection at the library, about one half are informative, designed to satisfy the child's desire to learn how, why, when and where.

Books included in this informative group are McCullough's "Good Work: What Will You Be When You Grow Up?"; Tubby's "A Picture Dictionary of the Bible"; Scott's "Manners for Moderns"; Beeler's "Experiments with Electricity"; Potter's "Young People's Book of Atomic Energy"; Leyson's "Modern Wonders and How They Work"; Pistorius' "What Butterfly Is It?"; Ross' "Young People's Book of Jet Propulsion"; Hogeboom's "Horses and How to Draw Them"; Leeming's "Papercraft: How to Make Toys"; Todd's "Favors and Useful Articles"; Todd's "Tricks Every Boy Can Do"; and head's "An Inheritance of Poetry".

May's "Let's Read About Mexico"; Hager's "Washington, City of Destiny"; Weldon's "Babe Ruth"; Brown's "Young Nathan"; Housey's "Kit Carson, American Scout"; and Brown's "John Paul Jones."

Utley Discusses Accomplishments Of Marshall Plan

The effects of Marshall plan aid in the reconstruction of Europe were discussed by Clifton Utley, noted news commentator, in his address at Illinois college Friday evening.

Mr. Utley told of the success which has been attained through the Marshall plan in relieving Europe in her struggle to rehabilitate herself and in thwarting the spread of Communism.

He maintained that although Europe has done 90% of the reconstruction work and the Marshall plan ten per cent, none of it could have been accomplished without aid from America.

He declared that America must continue to send help to Europe, for when American aid ceases, the Communists will step in.

He stressed the importance of not giving up and urged that American efforts in Europe's behalf be continued even though conditions, which have improved considerably, do not appear to be any better.

A reception was given in Utley's honor by Sigma Phi.

Bertha Sparks To Go On Trial Monday For Mack Chaudoin Death

The case of the People vs. Bertha Sparks, charged with murder, is docketed for trial Monday in circuit court, where a panel of 80 jurors has been ordered to report at 9 a. m. This is the first case charging murder to be heard in Morgan county in several years.

Judge Clem Smith of Carrollton will preside at the trial.

Mrs. Sparks is charged in an indictment with causing the death of Mack Chaudoin at her home on March 25 of this year. She is accused of striking him on the head, resulting in internal hemorrhages which caused his death sometime during the night. Chaudoin's body was discovered on the floor of a bedroom at the Sparks home on the morning of March 26.

In a purported confession several days later, Mrs. Sparks was said by officials to have admitted striking Chaudoin during an argument. The woman said in the alleged confession that she was threatened by Chaudoin.

Tiniest Republic Stakes Future On Gaming Table

WHEEL'S SPIN at San Marino casino produces mingled expressions on customers from the Italian border.

By LEO STOECKER
NEA Staff Correspondent

San Marino—(NEA)—The world's oldest and tiniest republic is gambling on its future by taking its revenues and rising costs to the gaming table.

Surrounded by non-Red Italy the little Communist-controlled nation of San Marino has started a gambling casino in the hope of making up the loss of customs duties which Italy normally collected and paid to the republic.

Over the protests of the Catholic party minority in this country of 12,000, a syndicate was authorized to convert the Titano theater, named after the mountain on which sits the capital of San Marino, with roulette wheels and other games in full cry on the main floor and erstwhile stage. San Marino hopes its 50 percent cut of the take will make up its customs losses.

For a million lire (about $1500) monthly, the syndicate rents the theater. A blazing neon sign, "Kursaal," announces its presence—founding fathers frowned on the word casino in deference to the Christian Democrats. Inside some 100 persons, chiefly San Marinese who picked up their new trade at neighboring Italy's casinos at San Remo and Venice, operate the games. For 500 lire (less than $1) the visitor can come inside and try his luck.

In return for its concession, the "Kursaal" operators have agreed to build a new casino valued at 100 million lire (about $150,000), a new 150-room hotel for its clients, and to repair the two main roads leading from the capital to Italy, using San Marinese labor and local materials.

But the "Kursaal's" chief clients at the moment, the Italian industrial-stables at the Italian-San Marino frontier. There, finance police have established control points to check documents of travelers with an eye to tax returns. Each bus or car passing into the tiny republic is examined at a leisurely pace, because, casino operators claim, the Italians want to delay arrival at the gaming tables. All this, they charge, is an effort by the rival casinos in Italy to kill their operation.

If the rivals succeed in putting the new "Kursaal" out of business, the average San Marinese will have lost—but not through direct gambling. Natives are forbidden admittance to the games.

DURBIN W.S.C.S. TO MEET WEDNESDAY AT MRS. OXLEY'S
Durbin—The W.S.C.S. will meet Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 16, with Mrs. Lucile Oxley. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. Lydia Seymour and Mrs. Judah Francis. Mrs. Gertrude Rawlings will present instrumental music, and the call to worship will be given by Clarice Wells. Program chairman is Mrs. Anna Mae Scott, Mrs. Vella Rees and Mrs. Maxine Carpenter. Roll call will be a Thanksgiving verse.

The Durbin Youth Fellowship members attended the institute meeting at Franklin Methodist church Monday evening. Mrs. Iva Dawson of Palmyra visited her sister, Mrs. Colla Oxley, last week. The two spent the weekend with their sister, Mrs. Bertha Nece in Jacksonville.

Summer Camping Periods Popular With Rural Youth

Urbana—Farm young folks have shown more interest in camping in the past five years than in all previous years together.

E. H. Reginer, rural sociologist in the Illinois College of Agriculture, made that statement today. He adds that in 1948 4-H Rural Youth, and Homemakers' clubs spent more than 10,000 days in camps throughout the state. Ninety-five percent of the rural camping is now done by young folks from 10 to 20 years old. But in the future we can expect an increase in older youth, homemaker rest camps, and family camping.

At present four district camps for 4-Hers are located near Monticello, Kankakee, Jacksonville, and West Frankfort. The camps include nearly 500 acres of land, two permanent and two temporary dining halls, and an artificial lake. A year-round camp manager has been employed, and 20 staff members are on duty during the summer. And over $220,000 has been raised toward a 10-year million-dollar campaign for these 4-H camps. These figures give some idea of the progress that is being made.

WHITE HALL

White Hall—Mrs. Marion Spehr and three children of St. Louis spent the Armistice day week end with her sister, Mrs. Robert W. Piper and family. Myron Ellis has been enjoying a week's vacation from his duties at the White Hall bank. His sister Mrs. John K. North, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Cora Ellis, expects to leave Sunday for return to her home in Glen Ridge, New Jersey. Mrs. Robert Downey of Jerseyville, mother of Charles Downey of White Hall, suffered a light stroke on Friday morning and was taken to Passavant Hospital, Jacksonville, where her condition is serious.

Don Blanchard, Ole Miss' offensive end and extra point specialist, is a cousin of Army's Doc Blanchard, All-America fullback.

TIED DOWN SAFE
Chicago—(P)—There are thieves they say, who will take anything that isn't nailed down. A couple of burglars of that type got into the Seng Teaming Company garage. They fastened one end of a chain to a truck and looped the other around the safe. The truck growled but didn't move. The burglars growled and did. The safe was bolted to the floor.

The New York Giants, with 13 pennants since 1900, lead all other National League teams in that department.

Sensational New Research Success Stops Swelling...Uncorks Joints

NEW HOPE FOR ARTHRITIC SUFFERERS

"God bless you all for wonderful new IMDRIN. This week I start my third bottle, and my husband already says I am like a new woman." —Mrs. W.P. Newark, N. J.

"Before finishing my first bottle of IMDRIN, the aches and pains in my back were gone. I feel much better now than I did years ago." —Mrs. M.H. Clarksburg, W. Va.

Mayor's Agony Over After 25 Years
The mayor of a progressive town near Albuquerque, N. Mex., tells a thrilling true-life story of sensational pain relief after 25 years of unbearable torture. He says: "I was ready to give up hope, when I heard about IMDRIN. Even before finishing the first bottle, I received wonderful relief and I can now enjoy living without suffering." IMDRIN may bring you the same blessed relief. Ask for IMDRIN today.

CLEVELAND—A closely-guarded research secret has finally been released for the benefit of arthritic and rheumatic sufferers. Clinical tests prove that this great new remedy, IMDRIN, is one of the fastest known reliefs for arthritic pain. It is a sensation from coast to coast.

How NEW IMDRIN Helps Victims
Medical researchers have now proved conclusively that IMDRIN works internally towards wonderful, sometimes complete, reduction of pain, heat, redness and swelling in the joints. Thursday Dinner Honors Longs' 40th Anniversary

The 40th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Long was honored at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Williams at 6 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 10. The Longs' daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Werries, were guests. The host and hostess offered their country home seven miles west of Jacksonville as an after dinner surprise. They also presented the couple with a chenille bedspread. At 8 p.m. 65 neighbors and friends arrived. After a social evening Mr. and Mrs. Long were requested to cut the wedding cake, which was adorned with flowers and candles in keeping with their ruby anniversary.

CIRCLE 1 TO MEET

"What was the score of the I.S.D.-Tennessee game?" was the number one question in Jacksonville Saturday night. To that query, we humbly confess "we dunno." The expected phone call from the I.S.D. coaches failed to materialize and we, like old man Mose, were left in the dark.

The fighting Illini are probably still shaking their heads trying to clear away the fog after that fourth quarter against Ohio State Saturday afternoon. To see a 17-14 lead and Rose Bowl dreams shattered in the last 10 minutes of play isn't exactly a football team's idea of a pleasant Saturday afternoon, well spent on the gridiron.

The Eliot-men have a chance to work that one out of their systems next week when the Northwestern Wildcats invade Champaign. It's the Illini homecoming and you can bet your 50-yard line ticket that the University gang isn't going to let this one slip away in the fourth quarter.

If any team can look good in defeat, then the Illinois College Blueboys accomplished just that here Saturday afternoon. There was no doubt as to which outfit was the stronger in midfield. Not with Dave Billings swivel-hipping his way through the Augie line almost at will. It must have rained too hard inside the Augustana 20 yard stripe, though, for that's where the locals looked as if they needed chains to stay on the touchdown track.

Where the weakness lay was fairly evident when a check of the records revealed that Augie Quarterback Jacobson threw only five passes, completed four and spiraled two for touchdowns. Conductors Jim and Sam Spink—playing their last game at the Blueboy tackle stations—just weren't selling any long trip tickets through the line.

The Rock Island gang was knocked on its pretty golden jeans rather abruptly when Bob Grove tossed that 13-yard touchdown pass to Ralph Christison to give the locals a 7-0 advantage with the game still in its infant stages. A vicious rumor purports that the Augies came to town with visions of a 40-0 win hanging over their helmets. But, like the halo over a "good" boy's head, it was gone at sight of its quarry—namely the Hilltoppers.

Pick Of The Six-Man Conference

Spreen, Routt. QB Queen of Franklin who had 690. Bill Rawlings, Franklin. HB Jack Marcy, hard-running Chandler-ville quarterback, suffered from lack of backers. He wound up with 513 votes, enough to place him on the third team while Dick Simon Daryle Tegeder, Meredosia. RE C of Meredosia, another good quarter- back, was fourth with 402 votes. Second Team Choices: Routt and Franklin dominated the second All-Star team which will also receive Journal-Courier recognition awards.

By The Journal-Courier Sports Editor Here it is, six-man football fans. The first Journal-Courier All-Star grid team elected by you out of the new 2-C conference. More than 2,600 ballots found their way across our desk during the six days of actual voting. When your sports editor and two competent clerks had finished tabulating the count, we concluded that six- man fans know their stuff even though this is the first year of foot- ball "watching" for most of them. Though the selections, which rated three Routt, two Franklin and one Meredosia gridders high and thereby placed them on the first team, may disappoint many players and fans, they were based on the actual vote count taken from the ballots. The three top teams in the con- ference standings are represented. Here it is, six-man football fans. The first Journal-Courier All-Star grid team elected by you out of the new 2-C conference. Bob Hocking of Franklin and Daryle Nortrup of Meredosia pre- sented a problem at the ends. Hock- ing received the most votes at left end while Nortrup, also voted in at the left flank, was second by a slight margin. However, Nortrup's 698 votes, while under Hocking's 715, were considerably above any of the backs—Don Wessler, Arenzville, 513 right ends received. Therefore he was given that spot over his team- mate Daryle Tegeder who had 638 votes. Bill Rawlings, giant Franklin half- back, chalked up the highest num- ber of votes in the pull. The Flash ball-carrier rang up 775 counters. Sonny Loneragan, Routt speedster, is Rawlings' running mate at the other halfback spot and wasn't far be- hind with 768 votes. Loneragan and Rawlings were at each other's throats constantly throughout the season. The elusive, little Routt halfback wound up the season with 14 touchdowns scored in five games. Rawlings, who was un- able to open the season with Frank- lin, played in four games and blasted his way to the same number of touchdowns. Both of these boys are juniors and will be back for another year of competition. Jim Flynn is Center: Jim Flynn, 220 pound Routt cen- ter, drew the nod at his favorite position. He edged out Bernard Newingham of Franklin, drawing 767 votes to Newingham's 686. Flynn, a senior, opened the season as a re- serve, but improved by leaps and bounds, finally developing into the championship Paul Stroud-coached gang's main forte on defense. A. J. Spreen wrested the number- one quarterback job away from sev- eral worthy competitors. Spreen, a cents higher.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Nov. 12—(P)—Hogs, cattle and sheep were quoted nominally steady today. Hogs sold within a $16.25 to $16.50 range. With the autumn hog run in full swing, prices fell to new lows for more than three years this week. On Thursday all hogs sold below the former OPA ceiling of $16.25, which was lifted on Oct. 15, 1946. The market recovered at the week's close as marketings were cut. After a dip early in the week, pro- ducers cut shipments and steer prices recovered to close steady to 50 cents higher than a week ago. Three loads of prime steers brought $40.00 to $41.00 to set the week's top mark. Cows, bulls and vealers all declined. Competition from large supplies of pork and increased shipments of poultry knocked lamb prices lower during the week. They ended $1.00 lower. Sheep, however, ended 50 cents higher.

Rice Owls Trim Texas A & M 13-0

Houston, Tex., Nov. 12—(P)—Two scampering halfbacks and a stout second half defense gave the Rice Owls a 13 to 0 victory over Texas A & M Saturday before a capacity crowd of 31,000. It was Rice's fourth consecutive Southwest conference victory in as many starts. Sophomore halfback Billy Burk- halter climaxed first half drives of 64 and 41 yards by plunging one yard for both touchdowns. End James (Froggie) Williams missed the first extra point try, but kicked the second. Boston won eight National League pennants before 1900, but has been able to win only two since.

Fleet Billy Bye Paces Gophers To Victory Over Pitt

Pittsburgh, Nov. 12 —(P)— Fleet Billy Bye popped like a wraith from a giant Minnesota forward wall be- fore 42,515 fans Saturday to lead the Gophers to a 24-7 victory over the University of Pittsburgh. The 180-pound Anoka, Minn., halfback — a comparative midget running behind the big Gopher line — raced over for two touchdowns and passed for a third. Bye slanted off tackle from five yards out in the second period for the first Minnesota touchdown. He ran 29 yards later in the same stanza for another to run Minne- sota's lead to 14-0 at the half. The stubborn Pitt Panthers threat- ened to make things interesting in the last half by unfurling a passing attack for a touchdown. But Bye returned to the game and flipped a perfect pass to quarterback Jim Malosky of Crosby-Ironton, Minn., for the score which put the game safely beyond Pitt's reach. Wolves Down Stubborn Indiana Crew On Way To Big 10 Grid Title

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Michigan pushed its way past a stubborn Indiana team, 20-7 Saturday, toward another Big Ten football title.

The victory, witnessed by 79,200 fans, turned the western conference spotlight this way for next Saturday's Michigan-Ohio State battle, with the league crown and a Rose Bowl assignment at stake.

Michigan is ineligible, under conference ruling, to go to the Rose Bowl, but a victory would give Michigan its third straight undisputed Big Ten title, a feat never before accomplished in the 53-year history of the conference.

Decisive Battle Coming Up

Ohio, disposed of Illinois 30-17 today to pave the way for the decisive finale here. The Buckeyes will be out next Saturday to take both the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl trip.

Once again, it was the brilliant performance of Chuck Ortman that sparked Michigan to victory. The Milwaukeean completed 10 of 19 pass attempts for 160 yards and added 15 yards on ground plays.

Indiana had to be content with

Notre Dame Machine Rolls Over Tar Heels

New York, Nov. 12.—(AP)—The flood gates finally burst late Saturday and the mighty Irish of Notre Dame rolled up a crushing 42 to 6 score on North Carolina, but it was a hummer of a football game for a half.

There probably never was a more astonished set of athletes in all history than were the glittering stars from South Bend when they left the Yankee Stadium turf at the intermission deadlocked 6 to 6 with a Tar Heel team that had had the temerity to fight them to a frazzle for 30 breathtaking minutes.

California Nears Rose Bowl With 41-14 Oregon Win

Berkeley, Calif., Nov. 12.—(AP)—California's Bears charged into the home stretch of a perfect season and within eyesight of the Rose Bowl Saturday with a thumping 41 to 14 victory over the University of Oregon Ducks.

One of the largest crowds of the season, 76,000 fans, saw Lynn Waldorf's Bears come from behind to rack up their ninth consecutive triumph of the year, and remain the only undefeated, untied team in the coast conference. The Bears scored three touchdowns in two minutes of the third quarter to clinch it.

Only the high-scoring Stanford Indians now stand between California and a repeat engagement in the Rose Bowl, where it lost to Northwestern last January.

California buried Oregon under a powerful attack both on offense and defense that saw the northerners routed in the second and third periods.

Doak Walker Leads SMU To 34-6 Win

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 12.—(AP)—That man Doak Walker shocked Arkansas into a 34-6 defeat Saturday as Southern Methodist clung to a bare chance of the southwest conference football championship.

The great one scored three touchdowns and passed for another with a typical Walker show. He also booted three extra points and a crowd of 42,000 roared approval of the All-American's mighty play.

Second-stringers made the final Southern Methodist counter against a hard-fighting but sometimes confused Arkansas team.

The Methodists stormed to 240 yards on the ground and 177 passing to thoroughly pulverize the razorbacks.

Southern Methodist's victory today not only kept the Walkermen in the conference race but flamed their Bowl ambitions high.

Brown Smashes Harvard 28-14

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Brown snapped its losing streak against Harvard at seven games Saturday, powering its way to a decisive 28-14 victory before a chilled 23,000 crowd at the stadium. The 1949 Crimson thus became the first seven-time loser in a Harvard football history dating from 1874.

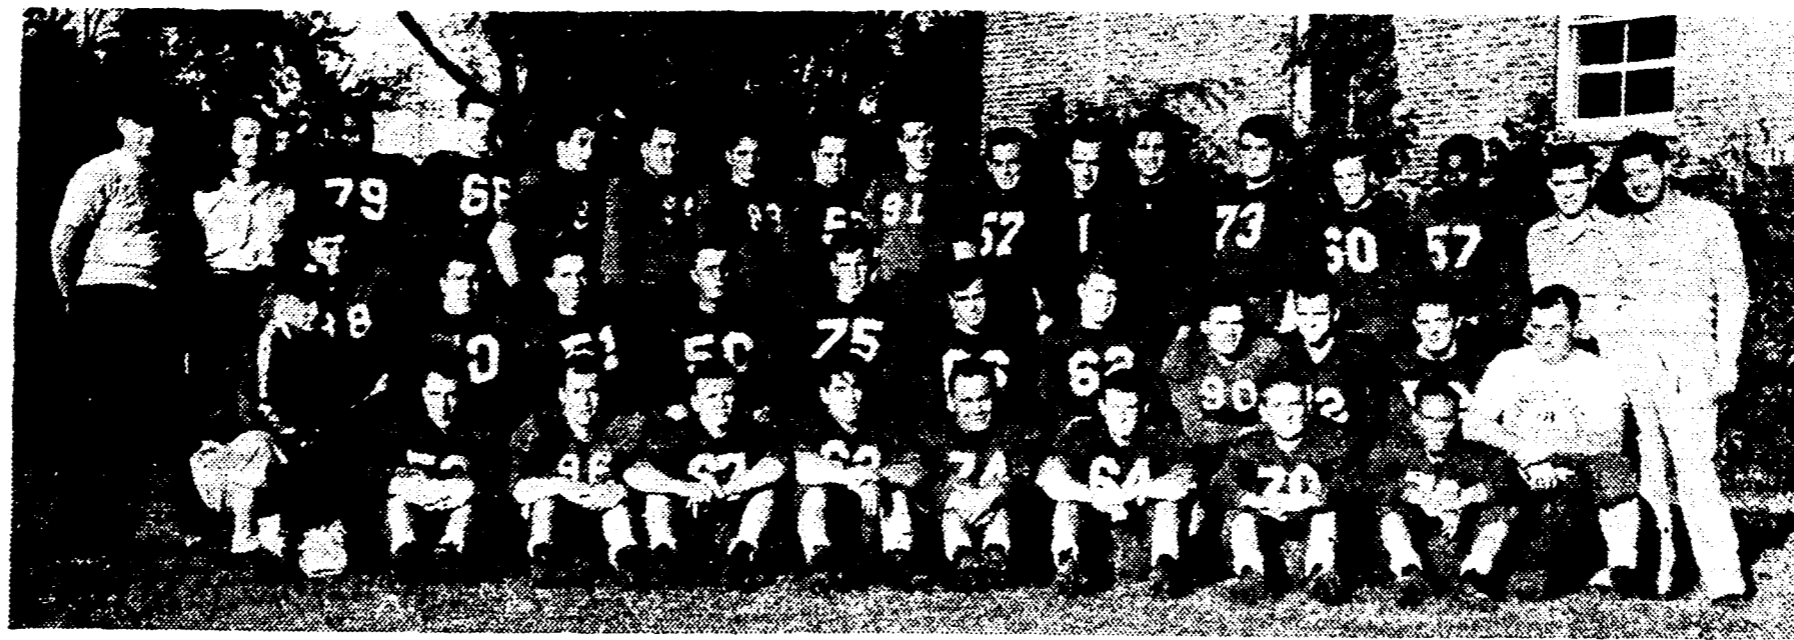

The Bruins, who now have won six of their seven games, wasted little time as they took the opening kickoff and tailed on the third play from scrimmage, Joe Paterno plunging over from Harvard's one.

The Middies, sticking closer to the ground than usual, pounded out two third period touchdowns and third stringers completed the rout with another pair in the last two minutes.

It was the Navy's third triumph against four losses and one tie as the Middies head into their Army classic two weeks from today.

The Detroit Red Wings, who led the National Hockey League standings in 1948-49, had 21-6 record at home and 13-13 on the road.

Finish Successful Season

Though Al Miller and his Illinois College eleven finished the season on a sour note Saturday afternoon by dropping a 14-7 heartbreaker to Augustana, they can still point to their record with pride. Competing against much larger schools, the Hilltoppers came through with a four win, one tie and three loss mark.

Oregon State 11 Upsets Michigan State 25 To 20

Portland, Ore., Nov. 12.—(AP)—The chest and toe of Stan McGuire and the long legs of Ken Carpenter carried the underdog Oregon State Beavers to a spectacular 25-20 football victory Saturday over the mighty Spartans of Michigan State College.

Oregon State was expected to provide no more than an interesting workout for the Spartans, who have been rated highly in the national gridiron picture. For a little more than a quarter, the crowd of 22,239 wondered only how high the invaders would care to run the count.

Michigan State dominated the scoreless first period, and scored twice early in the second stanza. With the count at 13-0, against them, the Beavers had made just three yards from scrimmage. Then they began to lose their jitters, stiffening to balk the Spartans' attack.

Suddenly Coach Kip Taylor's Beavers busted out all over, lashing by land and air to cover 59 yards in eight plays and leave the score at 13-7 as the quarter closed.

With the start of the second half, the Beavers smashed another 59 yards on seven plays to tie the score, and it remained at 13 all when Stan McGuire missed a placement try for the first time this season.

Army Barely Gets Past Penn 14-13

Philadelphia, Nov. 12.—(AP)—Army ran its unbeaten string to 19 games Saturday by edging underdog Pennsylvania, 14-13, in a football melodrama that was settled by Jack Mackmull's unerring placement kicks.

Pennsylvania, bottling up Army's great quarterback, Arnold Galiffa, twice came within bare yards of additional touchdowns. The vast throng of 76,000 that jammed Franklin Field stayed to the bitter end of the cold, gloomy day. Feelings ran so high on the final play that the Army and Penn teams almost started a free-for-all. Coaches and officials broke up the battle before it got too serious.

Pennsylvania, expected to lose by three touchdowns to the nation's number two team, scored first on a 78 yard drive in the second period with Bob Deuber smashing one yard for the touchdown. Herb Agocs, the big Penn end who played a mighty defensive game, sent his try for extra point far wide of the goal posts and this proved to be the deciding factor.

The American League has won 29 World Series and the National League 17.

Ohio State Batters Illinois Out Of Rose Bowl Picture 30 To 17

Columbus, O., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Ohio State's battering Bucks, frustrated by a stalwart Illinois crew during the first half, exploded for 30 points in the late-going Saturday to snatch a 30-17 conquest before a crowd of 81,085.

The Big Ten victory moved coach Wes Fesler's versatile crew a bit nearer a Rose Bowl bid and the Western conference title—only Michigan now standing in their path.

Thrown Back Three Times

The underdog Illinois fought off the first three Buckeye bids for touchdowns, throwing back three surges to the goalpost shadows while constructing a 10-point lead in the first half on a rugged 80-yard ground march and a 12-year field goal by Sam Rebecca.

Even in defeat, sophomore Johnny Karras was the game's "Merrill" in moleskins for the Illinois. The fleet-footed back carried 14 times for 48 yards via rushing, giving him 702 yards in that department for the season and a new Western conference record.

Les Horvath of Ohio State set the old mark of 699 in 1944—and Karras has a game to go.

Karras also came up with the game's most spectacular play. It was a 95-yard kickoff return which moved the Illinois back out front 17-14 in the third session after the Bucks had grabbed a 14-10 edge with two fast touchdowns.

Hemmed In Three Times

On his long jaunt, after taking a handoff from Dick Raklovits who took the kick, Karras was hemmed in at least three times on the sidelines by Ohio tacklers. He shook them off, however, and was going in when he crossed the last stripe.

A week ago Ohio was 10 points back of Pittsburgh's surprising Panthers but came on to win 14-10. Today they spotted the Illinois 10 points, took the lead, lost it, and then rolled on to one of the most swashbuckling wins in Ohio history.

Behind 17-14 in the fourth period after Karras' mighty jaunt, the Bucks gambled on a fourth-down plunge for two yards in midfield. They made good on it with a smash at tackle by fullback Curly Morrison, and went on in for the winning touchdown—a 34-yard pass from Pandel Savie to halfback Ray Hamilton which caught the invaders flat-footed.

Took To The Air

Illinois then took to the air with a desperation attack in an attempt to get back in the game, but the air barrage backfired as Billy Newell intercepted on his own 42 and raced back to the Illinois 43.

Vic Janowicz, Ohio's highly publicized sophomore, made six and then Morrison romped over tackle for 37 yards and an unnecessary but highly decorative touchdown.

The Illinois tried more passes after the kickoff, but Dick Widows intercepted one and Morrison's punt pined Illinois on its 13. When Don Engles dropped back for a heave he was downed in the end zone for a safety and the final points.

Oklahoma won on sheer power over a Missouri team that refused to crack against the nation's number one team in rushing offense. Coach Bud Wilkinson's Sooners gained 257 yards rushing and it's defense, also tops in the nation, held Missouri to a net total of 45 yards.

Oklahoma broke a scoreless, bruising battle in the second quarter with halfback Lindell Pearson going over from the three yard line for his first of two touchdowns in the period.

Perfect Big Seven Record

The victory gave Oklahoma a perfect Big Seven record of 5-0 and charged Missouri with it's first league defeat.

A morning rain ceased shortly before the opening kickoff and although the turf was slow, footing was fairly fast. Each team recovered three fumbles, but none of the miscues figured in the scoring.

Ken Tipps kicked the point for Oklahoma. Missouri hurried back to knot the count at 7-7 on Little Phil Klein's fourteen-yard pass into the end zone to Fred Hulise. Johnny Girosio kicked the point, last of the day for Missouri.

Oklahoma engineered another touchdown before the half ended, and again it was Pearson, this time from the two after a sustained drive of 69 yards.

The Sooners wound up their scoring in the third, Pearson passing seven yards to end Frankie Anderson for six points and fullback Leon Heath slugging through from four yards out for the other counter.

Tipps was good on three of four attempts from placement.

Purdue Outclasses Marquette Crew In 41-7 Victory

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Junior John Kerestes whipped through Marquette's staggering line for three touchdowns Saturday in a 41-7 Purdue victory, its first at home this season.

The big fullback's performance softened 28,000 Purdue fans' misery over the last home-field appearance of halfbacks Harry Szulborski and also contributed to Marquette's bad Norbert Adams. Their hard running afternoon.

Szulborski, top ground-gainer in the Western Conference two seasons until he injured a leg, showed his old flash in a 20-yard end run that started Purdue's sixth touchdown attack.

Kerestes and Adams took over from there. Kerestes scored on runs of 12, 7 and 21 yards and Adams spurred 51 yards down the middle of the field. All together, Purdue made 502 yards from scrimmage to Marquette's 221.

Even Purdue linemen got into the scoring. Defensive center Clinton Knitz picked a Marquette fumble out of the air in the third quarter and ran 25 yards for a touchdown. Purdue let four-year Guard Earl Murray run over one of its extra points after Rudy Trbovich had placekicked four out of five.

Nebraska Edges Iowa State 7 To 0

Ames, Ia., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Little Harry Meginnis darted 70 yards on a punt return Saturday to give Nebraska 7-0 victory over Iowa State. The touchdown spurt by the former Big Seven conference sprint champion came in pelting rain in the third period. That telling blow stunned the Cyclones. Although the air arm of Bill Weeks was virtually grounded by the weather and an alert Nebraska defense, Iowa State had controlled the contest up to Meginnis' run.

But Iowa State never fully rebounded from Meginnis' blow. The Cyclones twice later shot deep into Nebraska territory only to fall as they had four times in the first half.

The Sooners wound up their scoring in the third, Pearson passing seven yards to end Frankie Anderson for six points and fullback Leon Heath slugging through from four yards out for the other counter.

Tipps was good on three of four attempts from placement.

Wheaton scored at least once in every period. All told, the winners made 11 touchdowns.

Schoenherr, senior fullback who ranked third in the nation in scoring in 1947, raced 65 yards for Wheaton's first touchdown early in the game. The Racine, Wis., stars has a season ground gaining record of 683 yards in 113 trips.

Huntington tallied in the third quarter on a pass from Mac McDowell to Mark Hammel.

Dale Oxley kicked nine extra points and scored one of the touchdowns for the victors.

OKLAHOMA A&M BEATS KANSAS STATE 26-14

Manhattan, Kans., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Oklahoma A & M, depending on an aerial attack engineered mainly by Martin Riley, put on a last quarter scoring spree here Saturday to overtake the Kansas State Wildcats, 26 to 14, on a muddy football field before 13,000 fans.

Riley scored two of the Cowpokes' touchdowns in the fourth period and passed to Arien McNeil for one in the first.

Fourth Quarter Aerial Gives Augies Victory; Billings Leads Locals

The Illinois College Blueboys gave Augustana's vaunted Viking eleven all it wanted for three quarters here Saturday afternoon before the Rock Island gang connected with a 60 yard scoring pass in the final chapter to eke out a narrow 14-7 Little Nine conference victory over the Millermen.

It was the final game of the season for both elevens and gave the Augies at least a tie for the league championship. The Blueboys finished the season, ranking fourth in conference standings.

Sporadic rains dampened spirits in the medium sized crowd throughout the tilt. However, Blueboy spirit was at fever pitch and Al Miller saw his boys push the highly touted Golden Wave up and down the gridiron. Bob Grove's passing coupled with some brilliant running by halfback Dave Billings and Charles McKenzie, sparked the Hilltoppers to 14 first downs while the Augies were collecting 10.

Three times, the local collegians drove down inside the enemy 20 yard marker only to lose the leather on fumbles. Bobbles and intercepted passes set the stage for all three touchdowns.

Seconds Blueboy Score First.

After the opening kick-off, the keyed up Blueboys drove into Augustana's end zone for their first and only touchdown. After taking the Augie kick-off and failing to make the necessary yardage, Dave Billings was forced to punt for the Millermen. He sent a high, spiraling kick down to the Rock Island 15 where an Augie juggled the leather and Hilltop End Ralph Christison gabbled it up.

Billings cracked into the line for five yards. Then Grove calmly faded and tossed to Christison in pay-off territory for the tally. Grove hit Longer with a second pass for extra point and the locals led 7-0.

The Augustana eleven, beaten but once this season, launched a march that carried to the I.C. nine yard line before the Hilltoppers stiffened and took charge of the leather.

Augustana Gets A Break

It was during this series of plays that Augustana got its first scoring break. Failing to go far against the Golden Wave, defense, Billings dropped back to punt, as the second quarter got underway. He dropped the wet ball and Augie linemen recovered.

Augustana Quarterback Jacobson stole Bobby Grove's stuff on the first play from scrimmage when he heaved a 20-yard touchdown labeled pass to Don Shryver. Ross kicked the extra point to knot the count 7-7 at the intermission.

The Blueboys led by the sure passes of Bob Grove, marched to the Augie 20 yard line just before halftime, but a fatal fumble lost the opportunity as the gun barked.

It was all Billings and McKenzie for Illinois in the third quarter. The two quick-starting backs zipped through center for five and 10 yards at a clip with big tackles Jim and Sam Spink clearing a path, using cross blocks. The two ball-toters juggled to the Augie 25, mid-way through the third period where again a scoring try was nipped in the bud by a pass interception.

Sets Up Winning Tally

This last pass interception by Augustana's reserve quarterback Spenger set up the winning tally. Spenger ran the leather out to his own 40 from where Jacobson and Gumbel got together for a pass play that traveled 60 yards into the Blueboy end zone. It was a flat pass, traveling about 20 yards, but gave the speedy Gumbel just enough lead over local defenders to win the race. Boos was accurate with the extra point and Augustana registered its 14-7 margin.

Billings carried the game to Augustana late in the fourth quarter when he engineered a series of line plunges to the enemy 30. However, it was the same story again as Gumbel intercepted a Blueboy pass.

Cathedral's dream of nothing the school's first unbeaten and untied mark was blasted by Quincy, 20-0. Quincy put the game on ice with a first quarter touchdown.

Unbeaten Peoria Manual chalked up win No. 9 by downing Mattoon 20-0 and keeping alive its chances of splitting the Big 12 Conference prize with Champaign.

Several conference titles were decided in season windups last night. Centralia's Orphans beat West Frankfort 12-7 and wrapped up the South Seven crown. Benton was knocked out of the running by losing to Harrisburg, 7-0.

Lawrenceville, by wallopping Bridgeport 55-0, shared the North Egypt championship with Salem.

Hillsboro Takes Title

The Midstate title went to Hillsboro, 52-13 winning over Litchfield, and the West Suburban flag to Downers Grove, which defeated York of Elmhurst, 22-13.

Bloom of Chicago Heights, the South Suburban champion, had some trouble but hurdled Thornton 6-0.

In the Eastern Illinois race, Robinson and Newton rang up victories that set the stage for their showdown next week. Robinson whipped Oblong 13-0 and Newton trimmed Effingham 19-0.

Western Clinches I.I.A.C. Title

Macomb, Ill., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Western Illinois State clinched its first I.I.A.C. conference football championship since 1942 Saturday by blanketing Southern Illinois University 35-0.

It was Western's fourth conference win without a loss. Western's only defeat this season was a 33-14 drubbing by Detroit's Wayne University on Oct. 1.

The victory today entitles Western to a bid to the Thanksgiving Corn Bowl game at Bloomington to play a team to be picked from either the Pioneer conference or the Little Nine.

Western's climb to the top of the Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference began from the fourth spot of the five-team conference where Western finished in 1948.

BOWLING FOR EVERYBODY

Technical Experts: NED DAY and MILTON RAYMER, in cooperation with the National Bowling Council

by The Athletic Institute

NO. 11—THE STEPS AND SWING

Combining the footwork with the swing is next. Start with your left foot slightly forward, weight back on your heels. Knees relaxed, body upright and relaxed, the ball in both hands, with most of its weight supported by your left hand. On your first step (1), ball and foot start forward together. As you step forward with your right foot, push the ball straight forward just as in the push-swing delivery. On this step the ball does not start its downward swing. Your timing should be such that as your right foot touches the floor the ball is directly over it.

With the start of your second step (2), your arm is extended fully, length and the weight of the ball is starting the pendulum swing downward. As your weight comes onto your left foot, your downward swing is;

Now the third step (3)...a little faster. And here you are timing should bring you into fine balance on your left foot...the ball and your body moving smoothly forward.

As you near the end of your third step (4), the ball has swung to the top of your backswing. The pendulum swing has stopped naturally and the ball is poised, ready to start back down. Don't force the ball downward here. Let it start down naturally and keep your arm straight. Concentrate on control and let the weight of the ball provide the speed.

Your next installment will complete the four-step delivery.

India's Princes Still Paid

New Delhi—(AP)—The crownless princelings of India numbering about 600 together draw from the Indian exchequer an annual privy purse of $9,600,000.

States Minister Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel appealed to the Constituent Assembly recently to honor the pledges given to the princes for the "bloodless revolution" achieved by the integration of their states within two years of freedom. Patel said that before the integration the princes had been drawing from their respective states' treasuries an aggregate amount of $40,200,000.

The privy purses had been guaranteed only during the lifetime of the princes. Patel said, adding that for subsequent generations it would considerably less.

The CAMEO

By Virginia Teale Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Hagar Blair, seeking to buy a valuable cameo from artist Martin Falter, goes to his home and finds him murdered. Hagar, previously had sensed something wrong when she found the cameo's box, open and empty. Hagar searches the dead man's home and finds no cameo. Meanwhile, Stephanie Smith, who works for Hagar, arrives in a taxi. They do not report the murder to police, but go to Hagar's home, where they both live. There in Hagar's cameo collection is the missing cameo. It is connected with Falter's murder.

XII

CRUCIAL in a thick growth of jasmine, exactly the right height and thickness to conceal a small, slender person like himself. Arnold Pfeffer looked through a window, open a few inches, and saw Stephanie Smith talking to Hagar Blair. Stephanie had the cameo in her hands.

"Isn't it lovely, Hagar? You can't imagine what it means to have it in my hands after all these years."

Arnold saw Hagar plump down on the bed opposite Stephanie and say: "Hold on, girl. The cameo's not really yours yet, you know. We can't play hide-and-keepers when there's just been a murder because of that brooch. Or, at least, we're assuming that's why somebody stuck a knife into Falter."

Arnold stiffened. So they knew about Martin!

"Another thing," Hagar continued. "What's the story on this cameo? As far as you're concerned, I mean. You act like a Crusader holding the Holy Grail. I've got to know whether to aid and abet you or turn the thing over to the police." She brooded.

"Have to, anyhow, I guess."

Arnold shuddered. What would the police find out?

Then Stephanie began to talk. "You can't, Hagar!"

Cmdr. Harold Russell, Amvets, To Come Here

Veterans of World War II will come to Jacksonville Monday, Nov. 21, to hold a reunion and to greet the national commander of the Amvets, Harold Russell, well known paratrooper in real life and the double Oscar winning Hollywood actor in the film, "Best Years of Our Lives."

Leaders of the Jacksonville Amvets will meet this afternoon to make final arrangements for the day.

Amvets will be present from all posts in this section including Springfield, Peoria, Pearl, Williams, Bloomington, Quincy and Champaign.

Commander Russell lost both hands in an unfortunate landing on his first parachute jump. A leader in national war and savings bond drives, he was elected national commander of the Amvets last year. He is a leader in the work to place disabled veterans in jobs for which they are fitted, and to open up new jobs for them.

He will be in Moline next Sunday, and will fly to Jacksonville the following afternoon.

State Commander Clinton Craig of Kankakee and Willard Manning of Springfield, third district commander, will also be here for the reunion.

Mayberry-Barrow Wedding Rites In Roodhouse

Roodhouse—Miss Mary Ellen Mayberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mayberry of Roodhouse, became the wife of Robert Barrow, son of Mrs. Harry Anthony of Roodhouse, at 2 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 5, in a single-ring ceremony at the Church of Christ, Rev. W. W. Williams read the service, which was attended by several relatives and friends.

Mrs. W. H. Wolfe, Mrs. William Rees and Mrs. Lena Fendel of Glasgow, aunt of the groom, provided traditional music.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Jesse Mayberry, wore a blue satin dress with black accessories and pink carnations. Her maid of honor, Miss Norma Nicholson, wore a beige dress with green accessories and yellow carnations. The groom was attended by Robert Vinyard.

After the wedding a reception was held in the church parlors. Refreshments of wedding cake, sandwiches and coffee were served by Mrs. Ethel Donnellson assisted by Betty Cooper, Mrs. Jesse Mayberry and Mrs. Louis De Vos.

The bride is a graduate of the Roodhouse community high school and is now a teacher at the Spencer school, east of Roodhouse. The groom attended the Roodhouse schools and served in the navy.

The couple will reside east of Roodhouse.

Out of town relatives and friends present were Mrs. Fred Wallace of Rock Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Howard of Alton, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Whewell of Versailles and Mr. and Mrs. Louis De Vos of East Alton.

L.A.A. Convention Delegates Named In Greene County

Carrollton—Henry Day of Roodhouse, Charles Smith of Eldred, Charles Marsh of Greenfield and George Cory and Kane have been named delegates from the Greene County Farm Bureau to the annual L.A.A. convention, to be held next week in Chicago.

The alternates are Charles Smith of Eldred, Kenneth Seely of White Hall, Luther Smith of Eldred and Frank Kuhlme of Carrollton.

Others of the local organizations who plan to attend the meeting are W. H. Brown, Jr., Mrs. Howard Kessie, J. M. DeMonbrum, J. W. Martin, Verne Martin, Eugene Rawlins, Mr. and Mrs. K. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Davis, Henry Steinacher, C. W. Wallard, Roy Short, Mrs. Henry Day and Mrs. Charles Smith.

Farm Adviser and Mrs. W. H. Brown, Jr., entertained the farm advisers, their assistants and the wives of both at a dinner Wednesday evening at the Griswold Annex in White Hall. The men met at the annex at four p. m. for a conference during which time the wives were entertained at the Brown home. Following dinner, the evening was spent in playing bridge.

Neal Twitchell and Bob Everett, members of the agricultural 4-H club, will represent their organizations at the leadership training school to be held at East Bay Camp, Bloomington, in July. The alternates are Duane Bell and William Kinser.

Lucius O. Lawson Dies Suddenly Here Saturday

Lucius Otto Lawson, 1202 E. Railroad street, died suddenly at 4:45 p.m. Saturday in the offices of his physicians, Norris & Norris, Farmers Bank building. The Jacksonville fire department arrived with the city's rescuator, but their efforts were without benefit.

Mr. Lawson was a retired farmer and veteran of World War I. About two weeks ago he suffered a cerebral hemorrhage.

He was born July 27, 1891, and was 58 years old. Ethel Long became his wife March 1, 1919. She survives along with two stepdaughters, Mrs. Hubert Coop of Ashland and Mrs. Alvin Bertram of Kilbuck, Ill., one half-brother, Edwin Bettis of Murrayville, 10 grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Mr. Lawson was a member of the Manchester Baptist church and of the American Legion, post 279, in Jacksonville.

The body is at the Williamson Funeral Home. Arrangements are incomplete and will be announced later.

The family will receive friends Monday from 7:30 until 9 p.m.

Expect To Reopen Garment Factory In Winchester

Winchester—The R. & W. Manufacturing company of St. Louis has announced plans for reopening of their factory in Winchester, which was destroyed by fire in September.

Wallace Bishop, manager of the Winchester factory said Thursday that the company will be ready to resume operations "within a few weeks."

The plant employed 65 people when the fire occurred.

According to Bishop, when the building is completely rehabilitated, the plant will employ at least that many, and perhaps more. Present plans call for the rebuilding of the ground floor only; however, it is planned eventually to build a 57 foot addition on the west end of the building.

Citizens of Winchester were elated to hear of the reestablishment of its only manufacturing business.

One Campaign For All Six, Theme Of Chest Fund Drive

City division of the Community chest campaign will make its first report tomorrow at the Masonic Temple, at 12:15 p.m. City workers have been active since the kick-off dinner last Wednesday night.

The other four divisions of the campaign, special gifts, clubs and organizations, employees division and the county division have all been working and will report with the city division Monday.

The citizens of Morgan county are being asked to support generously all within the limits of their ability the six participating Chest agencies which have contributed so much to the health, welfare and recreational opportunities of Morgan county people. County citizens are having an opportunity to support all six groups in one general campaign.

The "Y" is a dynamic growing social and spiritual force—a continuous daily demonstration of practical Christianity at work in a troubled world. This year the "Y" served an average of 1,500 boys and girls weekly, who came from every part of Morgan county. The "Y" is constantly on the job building good citizens for tomorrow.

Girl Scouts

The Girl Scout program is designed to serve all girls. The Girl Scouts, which is one of the largest and oldest girls' organizations in the world, has as its chief objective teaching democracy through group activity. Five hundred and ninety girls are now registered in Morgan county in the Girl Scouts under the leadership of approximately 200 volunteer adults.

Boy Scouts

The Boy Scout program is centered in character-building activities whereby boys develop leadership and resourcefulness leading to later useful citizenship. Thirty-four Scout units in eight different communities are now in action in Morgan county. Nearly 250 adult men and women voluntarily direct the program which includes 873 boys in our county. Expanded activities and a lowered age limit will increase the scope of this program next year.

Ideas To Improve Home Bureau Told To Unit Thursday

Six groups of Morgan-Scott Home Bureau members were allowed six minutes to decide on a statement of ideas that would make a better organization at the meeting of the unit's officers training school on Nov. 10. Each group was made up of six members including a chairman and recording secretary. The method, originated by Mr. Phillips, is called "Phillips 66."

Mrs. James Dunlap, president, called the meeting to order, and Miss Gertrude Kaiser, home adviser at large, of the University of Illinois, was in charge of the school. She read a poem which likened the unit's preparation to that of a gardener.

She also stated that there are now 54,000 members in 94 such organizations of 99 counties. Calhoun, Hamilton and Johnson counties are not yet organized.

One who joins the Home Bureau automatically becomes a member of the Illinois Home Bureau federation, the Associated Women of American Farm Bureau federation, the National Home Demonstration council and the International Associated Country Women of the World. Any woman may join.

Pupils Of Junior High On Program At Prairie Union

Pantomimes and songs by James Waltz and six students from David Prince junior high formed the program at the Friday evening meeting of the Prairie Union community club.

Roy Newberry, vice president, called the meeting to order, and Alma Halligan gave the secretary's report. Mrs. Newberry gave a short talk on the progress of the school question and on the community chest drive.

The program committee consisted of Mr. and Mrs. John Roeger, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Newberry, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Spradlin and Miss Beulah Wolters. Those on the domestic committee were Mr. and Mrs. Richard DeOnnellas, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur DeOnnellas and Mr. and Mrs. Harold DeOnnellas.

The December meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Wendorf and the school children.

Massey Services Held Saturday

Services for Elizabeth Massey were held at the Williamson Funeral Home at 2 p.m. Saturday. Rev. Leslie G. Houston was in charge, and Mrs. Lois Hardin was the soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Warrington Kent at the organ.

The flowers were cared for by Mrs. A. J. Barber, Mrs. Floyd Allen, Mrs. Fred Jones, Mrs. Raymond Evans and Mrs. Harriett Jones.

Palbearers were George Robinson, Floyd Allen, A. J. Barber, C. E. Lonegan, Burl Barnes and Ralph Riggs.

Interment was made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Alexander Fire Last Year

Just a year ago, Nov. 13, 1948, the 40 year old elevator owned by the Alexander Elevator company was completely destroyed by fire. The huge piles of corn, soybeans and oats, 38,000 bushels, smoldered for weeks.

The photograph shows the new structure that has just been completed by the company, owned by Wilbur C. Kumble. Carpenters got it well enough along to take care of the wheat and oats harvest, but the finishing touches on the modern grain handling plant was not finished until October.

It has storage for 50,000 bushels. Completely electrified, the elevator features fast unloading facilities, a high speed leg, a new corn sheller and cleaner and an electric man-lift.

Dr. DeSilva Dies In Rock Island; Burial In N. Y.

Dr. Joseph DeSilva, a native of Jacksonville, died Thursday morning at a hospital in Rock Island, Ill., in which city he had practiced medicine for the past 35 years. Dr. DeSilva was 80 years old.

He was born in Jacksonville, Aug. 9, 1869, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeSilva, who resided at 724 West Lafayette avenue.

Dr. DeSilva was an alumnus of Illinois College, and while an undergraduate was a member of the varsity baseball team. He played on its famous team in 1890.

After his graduation from Illinois college with a bachelor's degree in Latin, Dr. DeSilva entered his medical studies at Northwestern university. He graduated No. 1 in his class in 1893 and was awarded the internship prize at Mercy hospital in Chicago.

Following his graduation from Northwestern started his practice of medicine in Rock Island and continued there until last month when ill health forced him to retire. In recent years his son, Dr. Edward B. DeSilva has been associated with his father in the practice of medicine in Rock Island.

Dr. DeSilva is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Maria DeSilva Shuman, of Coral Gables, Fla., the son Dr. Edward B. DeSilva, and a brother, Ben DeSilva of Los Angeles, Calif. His wife preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at Rock Island. Burial will be Monday at Marian, New York.

Morgan Delegates To Attend Annual L.A.A. Convention

Morgan county farmers who are delegates to the annual meeting of the Illinois Agriculture association will leave for Chicago today and Monday. They will return Thursday night.

Harold W. McDevitt of Franklin, president of the Morgan county Farm Bureau, will head the delegation. He is also a member of the important resolutions committee, which will present its recommendations to the convention Thursday.

Governor Adlai E. Stevenson and Romeo Short, president of the Arkansas Farm Bureau, will be the principal speakers at Wednesday's banquet.

Southwestern Travelog Seen By Woman's Club

Attorney Carl E. Robinson entertained members of the Jacksonville Woman's club at their meeting Saturday afternoon by showing and narrating a film travelogue of his trip to the southwest last summer. The film showed many of the west's most scenic spots, including the Grand Canyon, Bryce and Zion canyons, the Great Salt Lake, the Mormon Temple in Salt Lake City and many other places.

A group of Chopin works, including two preludes, two mazurkas and two waltzes, was played by Hugh Beggs of the MacMurray College music faculty.

Mr. Beggs was introduced by Miss Charlotte Sieber, program chairman, who substituted for Mrs. G. O. Webster, music chairman. The chairman of the day, Mrs. Harold Gibson, introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Hart Presides

The meeting, presided over by Mrs. H. C. Hart, president, opened with the pledge to the flag, led by Miss Olive Burnett, who also offered the Lord's Prayer.

Minutes of the previous meeting and of the executive board meeting Wednesday were read by Mrs. John Marshall, secretary pro tem.

Mention was made of the deaths of Mrs. J. Marshall Miller and Mrs. W. C. Reineking, members who passed away during the week. Mrs. Paul Black was appointed chairman of the advisory board, succeeding Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. C. L. Rice, chairman of the Park Ridge School for Girls committee, announced that Christmas packages for the girls at the school are to be left at Merrigan's before Dec. 14. She asked that members attend to this matter as soon as possible.

Four New Members

The acceptance of four new members was announced. They are Mrs. Clara Allen, Mrs. Harvey Dowling, Mrs. E. L. Lambert and Mrs. B. S. Halter.

A social period followed the meeting, with Mrs. Don Ransdell as chairman of hostesses, assisted by

Miss Helen Rea Dies Of Shotgun Wound Saturday

Miss Helen Eloise Rea, 42 years old, killed herself with a .410 shotgun between 4-4:30 p.m. Saturday. She was found by her father, John Rea, on his farm two miles southeast of Woodson when he came in from doing the chores. Within the past few years she had had several operations and was ill and nervous. Her despondency is believed to have brought on the suicide.

Miss Rea was born and raised on her father's farm on Murrayville Route 2. She was born Aug. 26, 1907, to John W. and Inez Henry Rea. After Mrs. Rea's death 11 years ago she had kept house for her father.

The deceased was a sister to Mrs. Dorothy Story of Roodhouse, Route 2. She was a member of the Woodson Christian church.

Services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Reynolds Mortuary with Rev. Vanderhorst officiating, assisted by Rev. A. D. Hermann. Burial will be in the Henry cemetery south of Woodson.

Friends may call at the funeral home between 7-9 p.m. Monday.

Lessons Given, Chairmen Named At Home Bureau

Murrayville—The major lesson concerning the personality and development of young children was presented by Mrs. W. E. Blackburn at the first meeting of the program year of the Murrayville Home Bureau unit Tuesday afternoon. For the minor lesson Mrs. H. G. Strang prepared a unique table decoration for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Appointments for the year were: Mrs. Ethel Stringer, publicity; Mrs. Ernest Lewis, radio; Mrs. C. F. Strang, health and safety; Mrs. Emory Story, library; Mrs. C. B. Fitzsimmons, recreation; Mrs. Irl Henderson, 4-H; Mrs. William Reiser, commodities; and Mrs. G. O. Lewis, major projects.

During the business session the activities of the organization were reviewed. Several beautiful packages were displayed in response to roll call.

Guests were Mrs. Herman Baker, Mrs. Ward Ivers and Mrs. M. S. Zachary of Jacksonville.

The home adviser will present the lesson at the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Emory Story Dec. 13.

Mrs. Dora White Dies at Nursing Home Saturday

Mrs. Dora White, widow of the late Herbert C. White, passed away Saturday at 10:10 a.m. at the Carson Nursing Home on East Independence avenue. Death followed a four-year illness.

Born in Germany on Jan. 18, 1874, Mrs. White was the daughter of Jacob and Kathryn Hurburg. Her home in this city was at 1036 Beesley avenue.

Mrs. White is survived by three children, Earl L. White and Mrs. Lillian Robinson of this city and Harold C. White of Chicago; five grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. Dina Ryan of Beardstown and Mrs. Mary Vieira of Jacksonville.

Her husband died in 1940. She was also preceded in death by one brother and three sisters.

The body is at the Williamson Funeral Home, where final rites will be conducted at 3 p.m. Monday. Burial will be in Jacksonville East cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home Sunday from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

Donations, Gift Voted By Arcadia Women Wednesday

Donations to the community chest and a Christmas gift to the Park Ridge school for girls were decided upon at the meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club Wednesday afternoon at the hall. Mrs. Maggie Thompson was hostess.

A paper on "Occupational Therapy" was read by Mrs. Edna Mallcoat, who also conducted a contest in which Mrs. Mabel Clark received the prize.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Iva Buck, with the song "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." Eighteen members answered roll call with a Bible verse of thanks. The club clock, repeated in union, was followed by the pledge of allegiance. Mrs. Marie McGinnis gave the club prayer.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Guests were Mrs. Herbert Strubbe and Mrs. M. C. Thompson, Jr.
